OLDHAM COUNTY, KENTUCKY - A RESOURCE PROFILE

Oldham County lies in the Outer Blue Grass Region in north-central Kentucky. The county covers a total land area of 189 square miles. The Ohio River forms the northwest boundary of the county. Oldham County had an estimated 1994 population of 39,851.

LaGrange, the county seat of Oldham County, is located adjacent to Interstate 71. LaGrange is 25 miles northeast of Louisville, Kentucky; 74 miles southwest of Cincinnati, Ohio; and 198 miles northeast of Nashville, Tennessee. LaGrange had an estimated 1994 population of 4,527.

The Economic Framework - The total number of Oldham County residents employed in 1995 averaged 20,538. Manufacturing firms in the county reported 1,107 employees; wholesale and retail trade provided 2,419 jobs; 2,264 people were employed in service occupations; state and local government accounted for 2,490 employees; and contract construction firms provided 1,072 jobs.

Labor Supply - There is a current estimated labor supply of 18,197 persons available for industrial jobs in the labor market area. In addition, from 1998 through 2002, 52,484 young persons in the area will become 18 years of age and potentially available for industrial jobs.

Transportation - Major highways directly serving Oldham County include Interstate 71, a major north-south route, and Kentucky Highways 146 and 53. Twenty-one trucking companies provide interstate and/or intrastate service to the area. Main line rail service is provided to LaGrange by CSX Transportation. The nearest scheduled commercial airline service is located at the Louisville International Airport, 29 miles southwest of LaGrange. Riverport facilities are available on the Ohio River at Louisville, 25 miles southwest of LaGrange.

Power and Fuel - Electric power is provided to LaGrange and part of Oldham County by the Kentucky Utilities Company. A major portion of Oldham County is served electric power by the Louisville Gas and Electric Company. LaGrange and parts of Oldham County are provided natural gas service by the Louisville Gas and Electric Company.

Education - Primary and secondary education is provided by the Oldham County School System, which is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Seven colleges and universities are located within 45 miles of LaGrange. Vocational training is available at the Oldham County Area Technology Center, located in Buckner, four miles southwest of LaGrange; and at the Jefferson State Regional Technology Center in Louisville, 25 miles southwest of LaGrange.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

LaGrange is governed by a mayor and eight council members. The mayor is elected to a four-year term, while the council members each serve two-year terms. Oldham County is governed by a county judge/executive and eight magistrates. Each county official serves a four-year term.

Planning and Zoning

Joint agency - Oldham County Planning and Zoning Commission

Participating cities - LaGrange, Crestwood, Pewee Valley

Zoning enforced - All areas

Subdivision regulations enforced - All areas

Local codes enforced - Building, Housing (LaGrange only)

Mandatory state codes enforced - Kentucky Plumbing Code, National

Electric Code, Kentucky Boiler Regulations and Standards, Kentucky

Building Code (modeled after BOCA code)

Local Fees and Licenses

Businesses within the city of LaGrange are required to pay an annual license tax. Contractors, professional, and delivery type businesses in LaGrange pay a flat annual license tax. The amount of the license ranges from $51 to $300 per year, depending upon the type of business. Manufacturing, retail, and wholesale trade businesses must pay a license tax based upon gross receipts. The minimum tax is $51.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. Accounts receivable are taxed at 85% of face value.

Customized Training

The Kentucky Tech system, through its Training and Development Coordinators, will provide technical assistance and will identify and develop low-cost customized training programs and services for both established and prospective businesses. Businesses needing customized training program should contact a Training and Development Coordinator located at the Jefferson State Regional Technology Center.

Assessment Services

Kentucky Tech Career Connections offers to business, education, and government agencies customized assessment in career inventories, interest inventories, pre-hire assessment, psychomotor skills, and academic potential. A Career Connections assessment center is located at the Jefferson State Regional Technology Center.

Adult Education Services

Adult education programs are available to adults who want to develop new skills, improve basic skills, or earn a high school equivalency diploma. In Oldham County, adult literacy is provided by Tri-County Community Action in LaGrange and adult basic education is provided by the Oldham County Board of Education.

Bluegrass State Skills Corporation

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation, an independent public corporation created and funded by the Kentucky General Assembly, provides programs of skills training to meet the needs of business and industry from entry level to advanced training, and from upgrading present employees to retraining experienced workers.

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation is a major source for skills training assistance for a new or existing company. The Corporation works in partnership with other employment and job training resources and programs, as well as Kentucky's economic development activities, to package a program customized to meet the specific needs of a company.

RECREATION

Local

A year-round, supervised recreation program is open to all county residents. The program is operated through the Oldham County Board of Education and the various activities are conducted through the schools, using school recreational facilities.

The Wendell Moore Park is located one mile north of Buckner. The park contains a 56-acre fishing lake, volleyball courts, basketball courts, horseshoe pits, grills, picnic shelters, public restrooms, and parking facilities. There are plans for the construction of additional facilities at Oldham County Recreational Park. They include a miniature golf course and additional soccer and football fields.

LaGrange sponsors Pony and Babe Ruth Baseball Leagues. In addition, there are a number of county-wide softball leagues, some operated by the Recreation Department and others privately organized. Additional public recreational facilities in LaGrange and Buckner include two tennis courts, five baseball diamonds, and two football fields.

A city park has recently been developed in LaGrange. The ten-acre park contains picnic areas, shelters, ball fields, and restrooms. A small park located on the Ohio River near Westport, Kentucky, provides facilities for launching small boats and a boat dock. Several new soccer fields recently opened in Buckner. A new driving range is located between Buckner and Crestwood.

There are three semi-private and one private country clubs in Oldham County. Each club maintains an 18-hole golf course and three of the country clubs have swimming pools.

A new indoor theatre complex, Oldham 8 Theatres, recently opened in LaGrange. A new YMCA is scheduled for construction in 1997. In addition, a new civic center, a new county park, and two new indoor soccer facilities are planned for construction in 1997.
